Lead Where You Are Fighting Your Shadow Mission

*Luke 18:18-30; Acts 17:24-28; Galatians 5:7
(Pages 1039, 1098 & 1154 in the Bible in the seat back pocket)*

A Shadow mission is what you and I will do with our lives if we drift on autopilot. It consists of the activities toward which we will gravitate if we allow our natural temptations and selfishness to take over. Our shadow mission is usually close to our calling and gifts but have been hijacked by our ego and/or wounds.

God's Mission for you: Leveraging your gifts/talents/passions/experiences/relationships for God's glory.

Interact with the following statements:

- The greater the giftedness, the more likely we are to put up with the lack of character.
- The greater the giftedness, the more likely we are to obsess over the gift.
- The greater the giftedness the greater the burden it places on our character.
- Without character, giftedness will crush a person.
- Giftedness increases the possibility for self destruction.
- Character MUST bear the burden of giftedness.

Character development takes place as you ask Christ to enter and take over all areas of your life.

Read Colossians 3 every day this week.
