

Where are you most powerful?

What comes natural to you?

Where is God placed you currently?

What needs are around you?

What one thing will you do today to serve someone else as your active worship to God?